Port Highlights

Sept-Îles, (French for "Seven Islands") is a city in the Côte-Nord region of eastern Quebec, Canada. It is among the northernmost locales with a paved connection to the rest of Quebec's road network. The town is called Uashau, meaning "bay," in the Innu language. The city is well known for having major iron companies. The city relies heavily on the iron industry. Sept-Îles is one of the large cities by area in the province of Québec, even more expansive than Montreal. Sept-Îles has among the highest average wages and the highest average wage increases. The city is also home to the most highly attended recreational sport events in the province: the Tournoi Orange. Volleyball tournament, which consists of 405 teams and close to 800 volleyball games. The city of Sept-Îles has sought to become the forefront of the Quebec tourist industry. In 2010, the city witnessed its second consecutive year of major cruise ships stopping over.

Shore Experiences

The following shore experiences will be meeting ashore in the bus parking area of the terminal. Please proceed through the terminal and at the exit turn right. Please make your way ashore 20 minutes prior to the tour departure time on your ticket. Please have your tour tickets in hand ready to show them.

Ship's security notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your guest identification card with you when going ashore.

You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship. Be aware that we have established a secure area around the vessel and our security procedures require that you must be prepared to show your guest identification card when entering this area, in addition to showing it to the Security Staff at the gangway when leaving or boarding the ship.

We kindly ask you not to accept and bring on board any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding the ship, you may also be asked by our Security Staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying. We are sure that you will appreciate that this security is in the best interest of all concerned.

Launderettes Closed

During our stay in Quebec the launderettes will be closed due to the ship's limited capacity to retain Grey Water. Launderettes will be closed from 9.00am, 5 October until 5.30pm, 7 October. We apologise for any inconvenience caused and thank you for your understanding.

Jogging on Deck 7

Please be advised that jogging and power walking on Deck 7 is not permitted before 8.00am or after 8.00pm as this disturbs guests sleeping below. Thank you for your co-operation.
