“My Life” Broadway Star James Fox

After being a London based session musician and songwriter for many years, James had his first national TV break on BBC’s “Fame Academy.” He then represented the UK at The Eurovision Song Contest in 2004 to over 200 million TV viewers. After signing with Sony UK, his debut single, ‘Hold on to Our Love’ reached number 13 in the UK singles chart and was followed by another Top 20 hit four years later. His song “Landlocked” that he wrote with legendary lyricist, Sir Tim Rice, was the Official Poppy Appeal song in 2012. James has supported Tina Turner, Lulu, Wet Wet Wet, Natasha Bedingfield, Claire Teal and Will Young.

Theatre credits include: Judas in “Jesus Christ Superstar” (UK tour); The “Piano Man” in the Billy Joel musical “Movin’ Out” on Broadway, West End and North American tour; The American in the UK, European and Canadian tour of the musical “Chess”; and Paul McCartney in “Let it Be” on Broadway, UK tour and in the West End.

James has had the honour of performing in front of Her Majesty The Queen three times. Twice at the Royal Albert Hall for The Festival of Remembrance, in recognition of him entertaining the British Armed Forces worldwide for nearly two decades and at Windsor Castle to celebrate the Queen’s 90th Birthday. James received the Civilian Service Medal for his work in Afghanistan.

He spent 2020 writing, recording and producing his second album, “All The Fours”. It was released to much critical acclaim and has already achieved a vast amount of worldwide radio airplay. It is available to purchase on board.
